

Hello Pussy!

#1 MARCH 2003

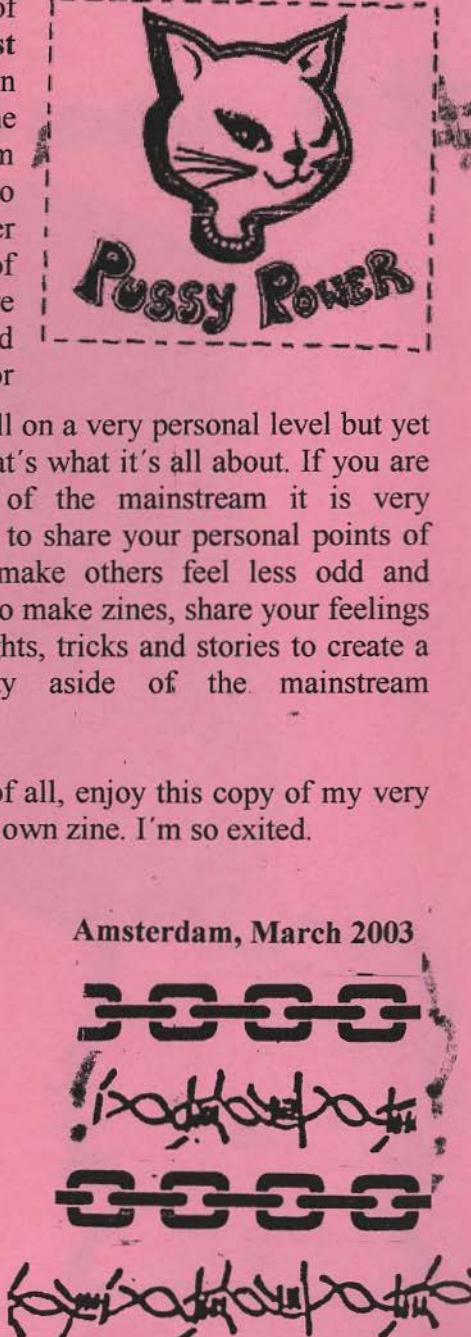

Hello Pussy!

This is the first issue of zine, it's made only by me and does so reflect only the thoughts and opinions of one person. It's a sexpositive, feminist collection of bits and pieces that I find in books, other magazines and most of all the internet. I had too many postmodernism classes to believe in copyright. I do however believe in putting parts together in a collage of something new as a form of art and self-expression. Some texts in here are originally written by me, combined with words that others said for me or things I find disturbing.

I kept it all on a very personal level but yet I think that's what it's all about. If you are not part of the mainstream it is very important to share your personal points of view to make others feel less odd and strange. So make zines, share your feelings and thoughts, tricks and stories to create a community aside of the mainstream culture.

But first of all, enjoy this copy of my very first, very own zine. I'm so exited.

Go to the homes of the rich.

Demand makeup. If they will not give it to you,

take it - it is your right.

Female drag - and male drag - are both artificial constructions, that is performances, which have only an ironic relationship to femaleness and maleness.

Try for something a little more challenging. Be a drag queen dressed up as a boy: a male drag king: a female drag queen:
heck, be a DYKE drag queen!!

Keep a brick in your purse; powder those long opera gloves with little bits of sharp glass;

wear contact poison lipstick;

store pepper spray in your perfume or cologne dispenser; file those stiletto heels to a razor's edge;

feel free to bitch-slap, even unto death,
anyone who says, as you approach: 'Hyuk-hyuk! What's THAT!?'

hide grenades and bullets in that dramatic Tammy

Wynette/Aretha Franklin upswept 'do or those Elvis muttonchop sideburns.

Any person, male or female, het or gay, transgendered or otherwise, can do.
female drag and also male drag. They can do it once in a lifetime, as a job, or invest their personality in it. And - like other forms of camp - drag can be conscious or unconscious.

Femininity

On how a harmless looking psychological test on the Hello Kitty homepage can in the least frustrate you for the rest of the day. If I would have gotten this answer when I was in puberty, I would have killed myself.

Question: How passionate are you?

My result:

We are sorry, but you're not passionate at all.

If you must ask for the reason, it's because you often refuse to be feminine.

You are always hanging out with guys and you don't look very sexy even though you are friendly.

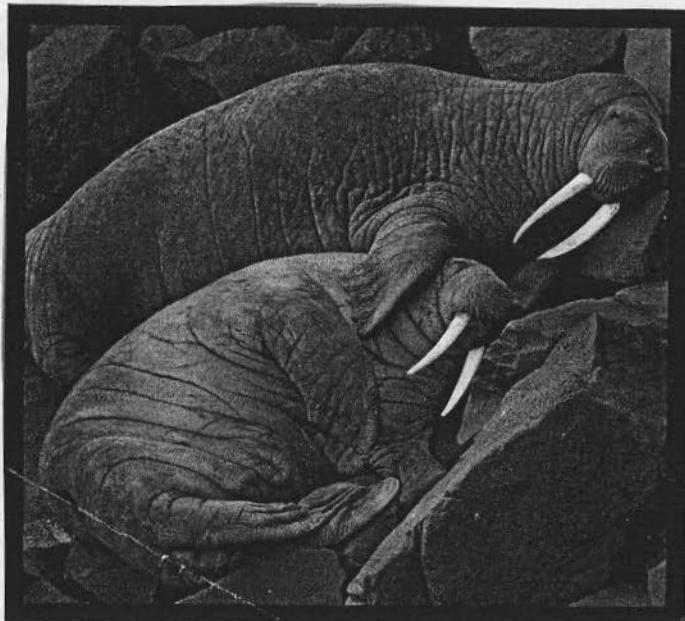

The fact that you are not feminine will attract some men...so it's not exactly bad news.

You should think this way: Only those who know what's the best will choose me!

Aktion ①
Benehmen Sie sich daneben.

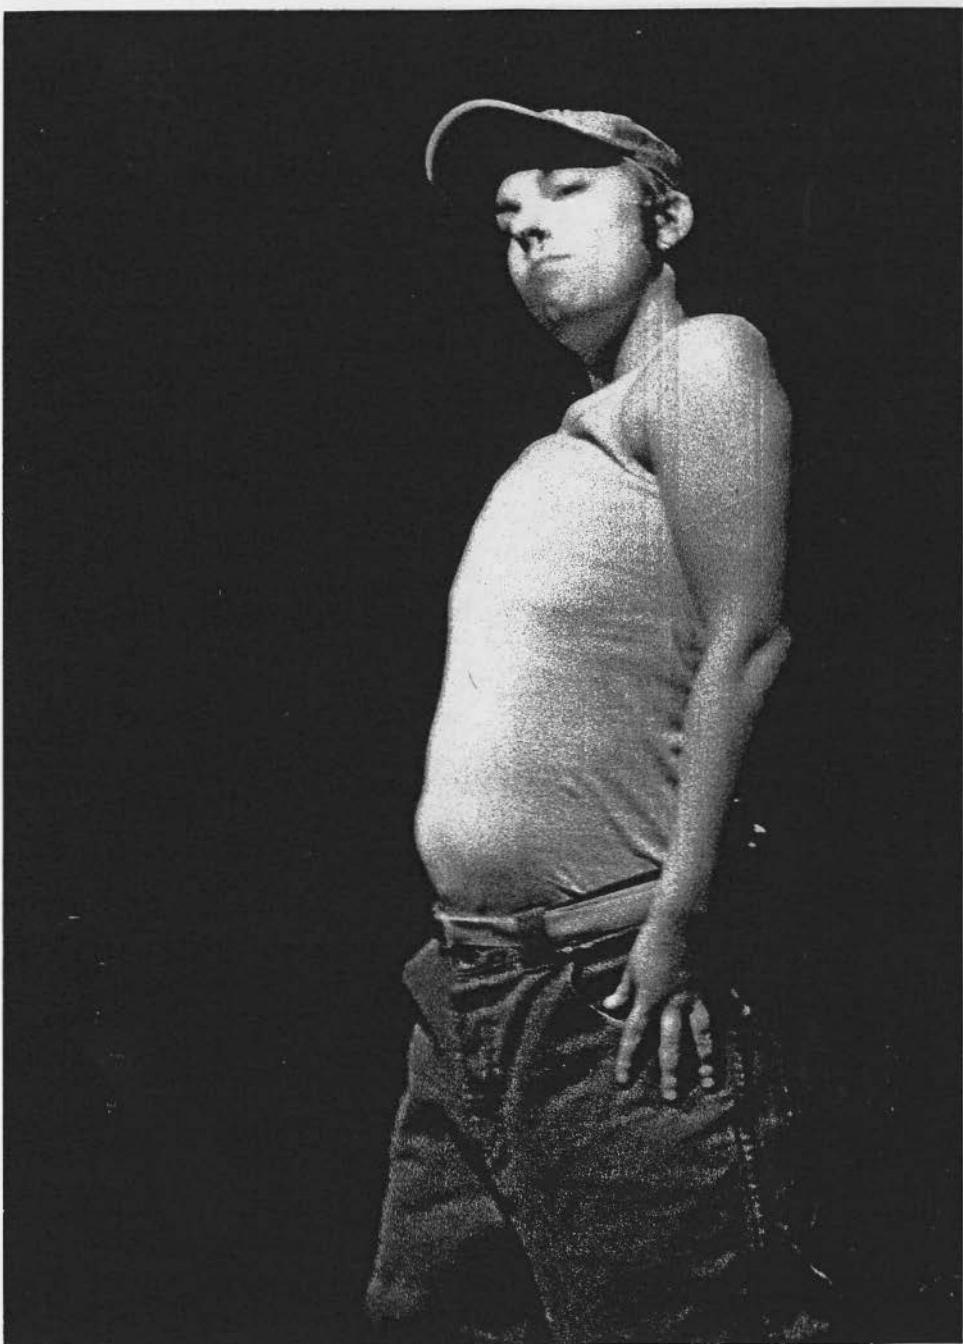

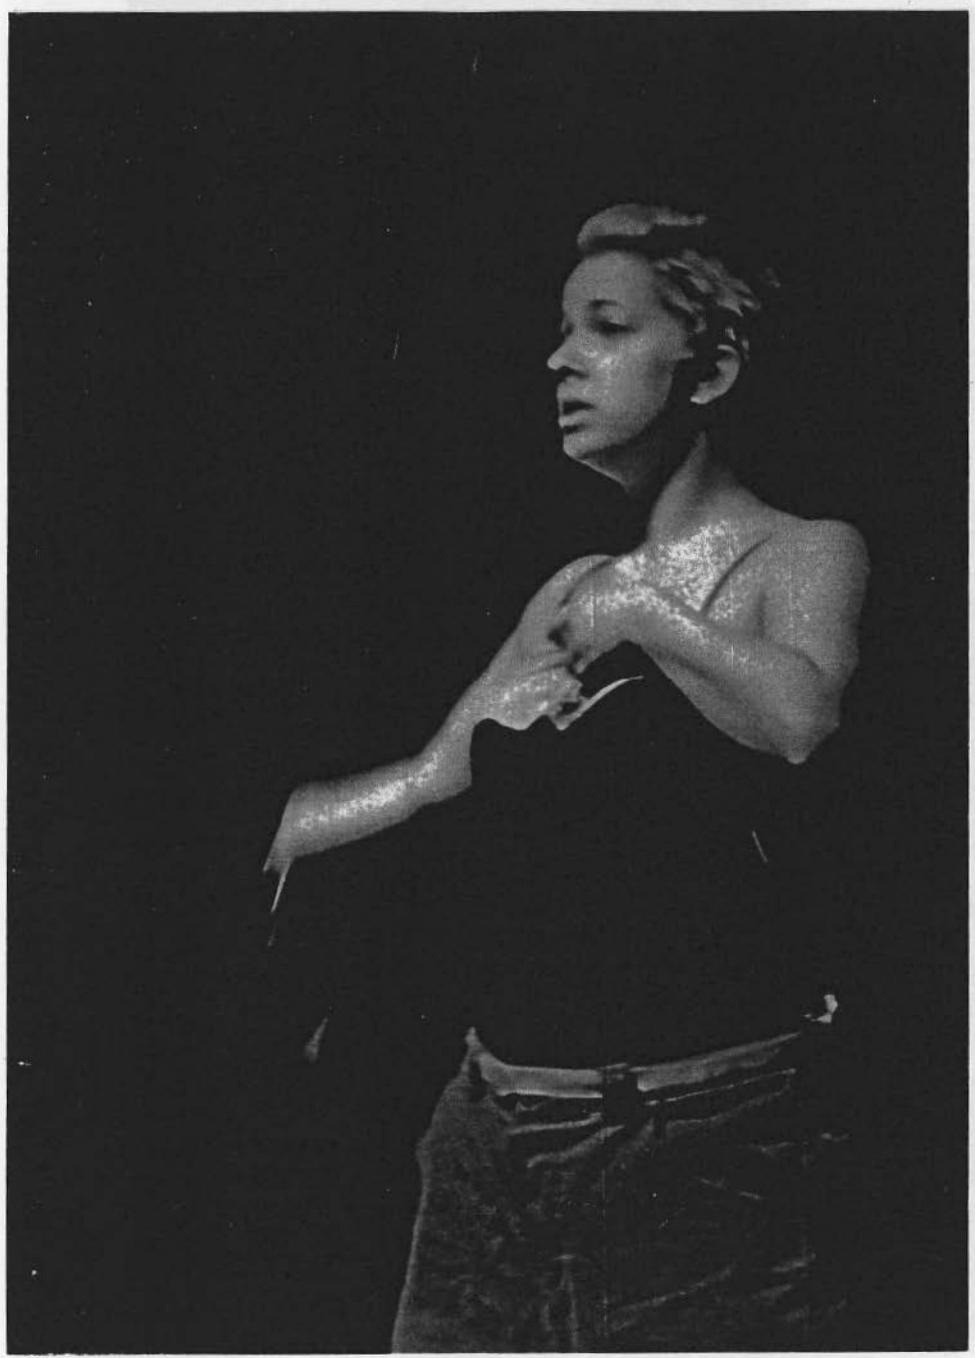

Nog erger is de luie vrouw, die zich om niets bekommert. Luiheid is een ontzettende ondeugd, en als ze bij u gevonden wordt, om al wat u lief is, ontdoe u ervan. De groote wet der menschheid is, dat ieder mensch moet werken en dat is een goede gezonde „heilige wet”. De arbeid vermeerdert het bezit en verzekert de onafhankelijkheid. Door de arbeid blijft ons lichaam gezond en onze geest frisch. De arbeid troost en versterkt en houdt veel kwalen op een afstand. Luiheid heeft ellende in haar gevolg, geestelijk en zedelijk verval. En ondanks deze verschrikkelijke gevolgen zijn er veel slordige vrouwen, die nooit werken. De kleeren laten zij overal slingeren; het huis is nooit opgeredderd, en het eten wordt op het laatste oogenblik klaar gemaakt, en dan natuurlijk slecht. Als de man thuis komt, dan worden er van hem diensten gevergd, die hem niet mochten gevraagd worden, na zijn ingespannen arbeid, om het dagelijksch brood te verdienen voor zijn gezin en zijn egoïstische vrouw, die haar luiheid botviert.

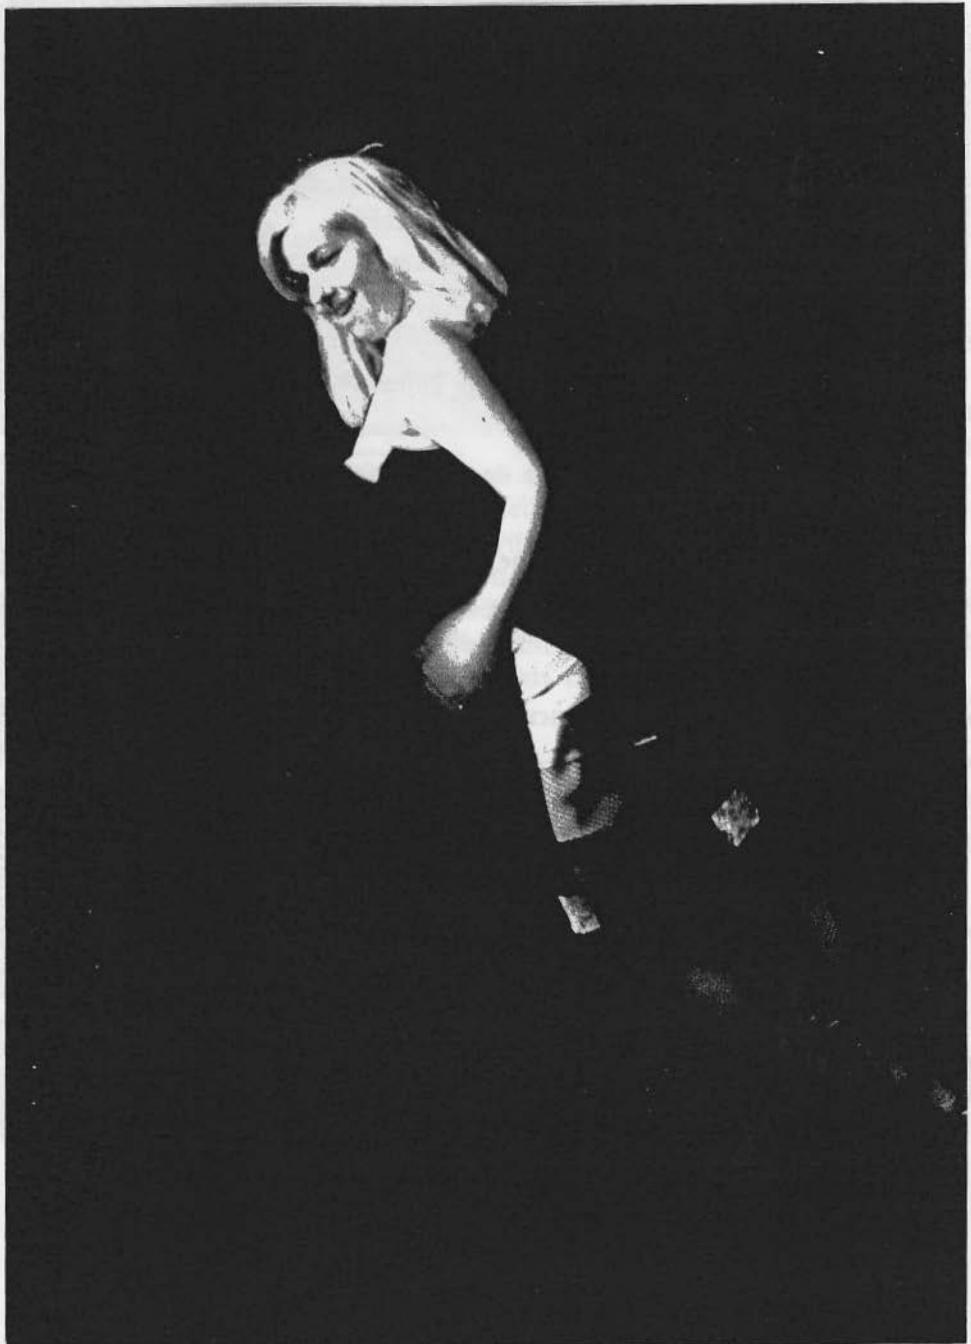

Even worse is the lazy woman who does not care about anything. Laziness is a dreadful vice and if you can find it in yourself, for all that's dear to you, get rid of it. The great law of mankind is that every human being has to work and that is a good, healthy holy law. Work increases your property and assures your independence. Work keeps our bodies healthy and the mind fresh. Work consoles and strengthens and keeps away many torments. Laziness is followed by misery, decay of mind and moral. But in spite of these horrible consequences there are a lot of slovenly women who never work. Their clothes are sloppy, the house is never tidy, and meals are fixed in a hurry and of course badly. When the man comes home, services are asked of him, that are not allowed to be asked after his exhausting work to earn the daily bread for his family and his selfish wife, who is celebrating her laziness.

Der Fetischismus.

Hier wird damit eine abnorme sexuelle Empfindung bezeichnet, welche mit Wollustgefühlen betont wird beim Anblick einzelner Körperteile, z. B. Fuß, Hand, Haar oder ganz bestimmter Kleidungsstücke, z. B. Schuhe, Strümpfe usw.

Zu den Haarfetischisten gehören auch die Zopfabschneider.

Dann gibt es noch Geruchsfetischisten;

Auch politische Verbrechen, und vor allem der Lustmord, ist auf das Konto dieses Lasters zu setzen.

Das Zwittertum

Die Fälle sind so selten, daß das deutsche Bürgerliche Gesetzbuch das Vorhandensein von Zwittern einfach bestreitet. Aber sie sind dennoch vorhanden.

Zu einem männlichen Körper gehört eine männliche Seele mit allen ihren Kräften; zu einem weiblichen eine weibliche. Wie nun, wenn sich in einem männlichen Körper eine weibliche Seele befindet und umgekehrt. Es wäre damit angezeigt, daß die Homosexualität auf einen Irrtum der Natur zurückzuführen sei; sie habe sich in der Wahl der Form vergriffen.

Die am weitesten verbreitete algologistische Pervertierung ist die sogenannte Geißelkunst (Flagellomorie), das heißt Geißeln oder Peitschen oder Gißgeißeln lassen zum Zwecke der Geschlechtlichen Erregung. Hierher gehört auch der „Erzieher Sadismus“ (Diphthong), dann der Sadismus im Heere, wobei bei den Gemüthshandlungen ein unverentheilbar homoöstischer Zug Zeuge tritt. Eine andere Art der Algologie ist die Lust, mit Nadeln oder Messern in das Fleisch des andern zu stechen (Meißelflechter und Wäbchenabschneider).

I am a

Die gleichgeschlechtliche Liebe (Homosexualität) und andere geschlechtliche Perversitäten.

Die gleichgeschlechtliche Liebe ist angeboren und mit völliger geistiger und körperlicher Gesundheit vereinbar. Aber sie ist und bleibt ein Rätsel.

Die Homosexualität als menschentypische Erscheinung ist und war zu allen Zeiten und bei allen Ständen und Volksklassen verbreitet.

Man nimmt an, daß sie 1,5 Prozent der Bevölkerung beträgt. Die Zahl der weiblichen Homosexuellen, der Urminden (= Lesbeninnen oder Tribaden) ist eine verhältnismäßig kleine.

Die Algolagnie (von algos = Schmerz, lagneia = Ausschweifung, eine geschlechtliche Perversität, bei der zugefügte oder erlittene Schmerzen eine Rolle spielen) zerfällt in die beiden Gruppen: Sadismus und Masochismus.

Beide Formen (Sadismus und Masochismus) kann man füglich als aktive (tätige) und passive (leidende) Algolagnie bezeichnen.

On March 8th 2003 – International Women's Day – we were having a great time at Vrankrijk, the local squat bar. A cool girlz-only day full of workshops like self defence, zine making and radical cheerleading. We enjoyed performances and danced all night long in a cozy and safe environment. During that night one of my friends got raped by a bunch of guys. She couldn't go to the police because it happened at a play party and it would have been too intimidating to explain the difference between consensual playing and gang rape to a police officer. This incident makes me want to share at least the very basic self defence rules that I have learned during that day.

- Use your voice. Say what you want or not want with a determined voice. Don't appear weak. Scream to get other people's attention or to scare the aggressor away.
- Don't let your personal space be violated. If somebody comes close to you, don't show your discomfort by moving away. This gives the impression of fear.
- Stand up straight so you don't fall as easily if somebody kicks you. If you are sitting, keep your posture rigid.
- Go for his eyes. Therefore you first push his chin up with your hand and stick your fingers in his eyes.
- Throat: Make a V with your hand by sticking out the thumb to the side, palm down. Other fingers are close together. Attack his throat with that.
- Kick his balls. Make sure it's an upward movement that jams them against his bones. That's what causes pain. Use the upperside of your foot or grab his hips and use your knee. This will also make him bend over so that you can go for his face more easily if he's taller than you.
- Kick his knees. But you'd better do it good. If you only cause enough pain to make him more aggressive instead of knocking him out for a while – that's even worse. Kick with the inside of your foot, lift it up and make a downward kick.
- Use your elbows to hit his face in a back and forth movement so you can hit it twice. Also use your elbow to aim for somebody's belly or chest if he's behind you. Keep your arms close to your body to focus the energy.
- Combine the movements: throat – eyes – kicks in various orders.
- Run away.

I like my sex life to be radical. I like to find the kind of people where the whole world wonders ■ is that a boy or a girl? ■ take them home with me and make sure not even they can ever tell again.

I'm a female-bodied queer faggot switch genderfuck punk, and don't you ever forget it.

I like to keep people guessing, and make sure they want me anyway. What a rush of power.

fairy-tale

One day a very proud horse
went for a walk in an enchanted forest.
He was looking for a wonderful sailor, not yet drowned by candlelight. She was standing at the bar, when she felt the warmth spread up her pantleg, so she looked down and saw this really amazing and colourful wig! It was the wig of a clown. But the clown was sad, and so he tried to fit on the handsome lion-tamer, who said: What the fuck? Corn sirup is an insult to sweetness. And frantically ripped it apart with her teeth. But zee torn into deep and began to draw blood.
Zee thought: Uhm, lovely. Reminds me of... the sweet nectar of a freshly picked honeysuckle. With that happy thought in mind, zee set off for a night of romance, sex and bliss. Then the next morning, when the lizards were done eating & had crawled up on the rocks to sun themselves, they opened their thighs to reveal meaty bits. One of them gets down on the knees and gives the other one a good, cold pineapple popsickle. "Um, that tastes good! Oh yeah so so goo-o-o-ed!"
But to go on about it would be ridiculous
to me so I eat cake & sip my tea & hope no one can smell pee. Tomorrow I get a job, start to work out and find a partner!

FIGHT SEXISM!

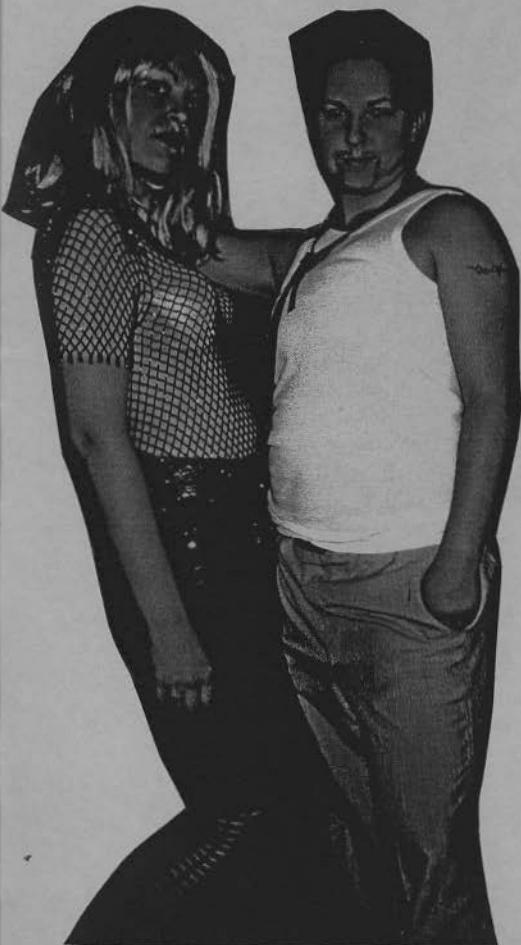

Why is it cool to have a VAPORIZER?

- ❖ Because you get high without inhaling any smoke. Much healthier for your lungs.
- ❖ You save money on tobacco and papers. ~
- ❖ No smoke, less pollution.
- ❖ You feel like a happy cow.
- ❖ You don't get a sleepy high but your head feels sparkly and green.
